

Attitude of Surrender

C F
Attitude of surrender, unrestrained abandon
Am E7 F
For the One, I call that name when I'm alone
C F
Saddened eyes before you, I've been so rude
Am E7 F
By injustice and ingratitude

A7 Dm G C
You have tested me so that I may see the error of my ways
F Dm E
So I might encounter You in all I do

C F
Overwhelmed by indebtedness, I'll spend my life to express
Am E7 F
But I know I can't repay
C F
The miracle of redemption, and the thought of your conception
Am E7 F
By grace and grace alone

A7 Dm G C
You have died for me so that I may see the error of my ways
F Dm GsusG
So I might encounter You in all I do

F G C
My unworthiness is not refused
F G Am
Sightless eyes are brought to You
F G C Am Dm GsusG
Sheer obedience becomes my attitude
